Pep up your ski wardrobe this year with High Society TROPICAL THUNDER collection, and explosion of colors and a vibrant mix of tropical flora and fauna.

Whether you opt for the more classic white based "Jungle light", the dramatic turquoise version, the elegant interpretation of the tropical botanics in black and white or the mysterious dark green and black look – embrace the wild side of nature this season.

Choose between the Bomber style jacket for a younger and very fashionable look, slim fit jackets to flatter your silhouette or puffy down duvet jackets for those who prefer a more sporty attire. Brand new is the 80th retro inspired voluminous snow shirt which makes a very sophisticated and warm outfit, especially when combined with the new puffy down duvet vest either in the same print or for a more settled look from the Hypnotic Glance collection in monochrome colors.

Those who are looking for an ultra sporty look and who want to fully flatter and elongate their silhouette opt for the sexy catsuit either in the elegant black and white tropical look or the more muted dark green and black version. Made for the woman who wants to be seen, who is always in motion and brave enough to stand out.

Team your favorite piece with matching super soft merino knit wear or luxurious cashmere to complete the effortless look or choose the color or print coordinated 1st or 2nd layers made out of breathable hightech material.
